

Broadcast Awards 2013

DARRALL MACQUEEN WINS BROADCAST AWARD

Press release: 31 January
For immediate release

Darrall Macqueen picked up the prize for Best Pre-School Programme at last night's Broadcast Awards, held at the Grosvenor House Hotel, London.

On 30th January, the best in Broadcasting were rewarded at the Broadcast Awards held in the Great Room at Grosvenor House Hotel. Attended by over 1200 of the industry's elite, the room was full of tension and suspense to find out who would be awarded.

Since the beginning, the Broadcast Awards have been at the heart of the industry calendar, shining a light on the UK's most acclaimed TV shows and the unsung talent that made it all possible.

A judging panel comprising industry heavyweights had a tough job deciding the winners as the quality of entries exceeded expectations once more.

The awards proved to be a fantastic night. The awards were hosted by Rob Brydon and the evening continued with a casino in support of our charity Vision.

Lisa Campbell, editor of Broadcast magazine said:

"2012 was an incredible year for television. TV proved its power to unite the nation, to move us, to inspire us and even to redefine us. Despite these rare and incredible events, there were plenty of other creative highs this year, from gripping current affairs to audacious comedy. As the jury chair, I can tell you that it made for tough debate and difficult decisions. Massive congratulations to all the nominees and winners."

The full list of winners can be found below.
